

Statement from Management:

The Washington State Human Rights Commission expresses extreme sadness and profound anger at the cruel death, of yet another Black body in the United States of America, George Floyd, killed at the hands of the police. The actions of the police officers is indefensible and they must be held accountable.

The protests by Washingtonians and people throughout the world demonstrates how deeply people are hurting and the level of collective frustration felt at this moment.

Systemic discrimination and oppression will no longer be tolerated. We remain committed to opposing discrimination in all of its forms.

We stand with you!
